A Message from Freeholder Director Gerald M. Thornton

It is an honor to serve as Director of the Board of Chosen Freeholders again this year. Although I have served on the Board for over 28 years, the past two years have been the most challenging times I have witnessed in county government.

As we continue to face difficult economic times, we are rethinking and reorganizing county government knowing that the traditional approach to finance, budgeting and operations no longer works.

I am proud of what we as a Board and especially our employees are accomplishing from providing quality services and programs with less employees and less dollars to handling the challenges and emergencies that come our way including last year's devastating Super Storm Sandy.

In 2013, we are focusing on investing in essential areas such as Infrastructure, Economic Development and Governmental Operations. Working with my colleagues on the Board, you can expect exciting times from county government. We will be moving forward with new ideas and a fresh approach in expanding our efforts to better serve you and make this county an even better place to live or visit.

What is a Freeholder?

A freeholder is the elected county government representative in New Jersey who serves on the county's main governing body, the Board of Chosen Freeholders. The term "freeholder" originates from medieval England and was designated to individuals who owned property. During this period, only those individuals who held property "free" and clear were eligible to vote in elections and to hold public office. Influenced by early English tradition, the State of New Jersey continued to use the title "freeholder" in its 21 county governments.

The Cape May County Board of Chosen Freeholders was incorporated by an act of the New Jersey Legislature in 1798. The modern board consists of five members that are elected "at-large" to three-year staggered terms. The board is organized every January when departments are designated and a director and vice-director are selected.

What are the duties of a Freeholder?

-m-

Under Cape May County's form of government, the Board of Chosen Freeholders acts as both the legislative and executive branches of county government. As legislators, the Board of Chosen Freeholders adopts resolutions establishing its policies of governing as well as its budgetary decisions in the appropriation of county tax dollars. It also adopts ordinances that authorize county borrowing and the incurring of debt for short and long term improvements for county equipment and facilities.

In its executive capacity, the freeholder board appoints the Clerk of the Board and Director of Operations and all department heads to carry out the mandates established by their resolutions and ordinances. Each freeholder is designated to oversee the day-to-day operations of specific county departments as well as serve as liaison to various authorities, boards, councils, commissions and committees established within county government.

Official County Seal adopted in 1927

Notwithstanding the importance and wide use of the seal, its origin remains a mystery. The original sketch of the county seal by architects Edwards and Green has been interpreted differently by historians and county officials through the years.

At first glance it is easy to identify the outline of the county in the center of the seal along with an approaching maritime vessel. After that, opinions vary as to what the other objects on the seal represent.

For example, one historian believes the ship was owned by Henry Hudson while others contend it was Captain Mey's, the recognized founder of Cape May County. The items depicted in the rim of the seal have been described as flying fish or whales, seagulls, doves, white cedar blossoms and even holly flowers. Still others say the seal includes anchors and a lighthouse depicting the shipping trade. Most agree the use of cornucopia symbolizes the county's bountiful vegetation. Even with the debate surrounding the seal, it remains an integral part of county government. The seal can be found on official documents, publications and the county's website.

The 1927 original casting of the seal resides on the wall of the Freeholders' Meeting Room behind the dais.
